Academia Sinica Cryo-EM Facility Service Instructions and Disclaimer

(2026.04)

Academia Sinica Cryo-EM Facility (ASCEM) provides image data collection services only and does not include image data analysis or interpretation. It is also not responsible for long-term backup of the raw data. Case applications and closures are managed through the DAAIS Facility Reservation System, and applicants can directly download information for individual cases online. Without written permission, applicants and their affiliated institutions, organizations, or companies may not use the logos, names, or trademarks, or any other imagery of ASCEM or ASCEM employees and their affiliated institutions in any way (including but not limited to advertisements, product introductions, investment prospectuses, etc.) that may mislead the public into believing that there is a business collaboration or partnership between the parties. I have read and fully understood the above statements, and hereby agree to sign and to comply with them.
